NOTE:

Character goes through an internal debate and plays multiple versions of herself in a gambling app!

Please do all scenes.

Looking for a wide character range and strong comedic instincts. Ability to move between subtle naturalism and theatrical performance.

SLATE:

First and last name. City.

REAL WORLD DANI

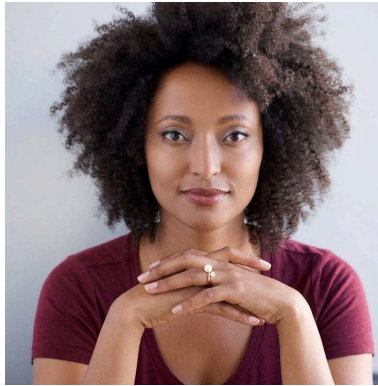

Contemporary, confident, comfortable.

SCENE

You're sitting on a couch scrolling through your casino betting app on your phone.
Your husband sits next to you and asks, "What are you playing?"

An internal debate goes through your mind. You wonder how to best answer his question.
After a beat, you say the following: REAL WORLD DANNI: "Roulette it is".

HIGH ROLLER DANI

Composed, elegant, certain. You carry yourself believing that the internal debate you're going through is completely unnecessary. You don't have to sell sophistication-you have it. You answer your husband's question with certainty. Cool and controlled.

SCENE

You look over to your husband and say as HIGH ROLLER DANI,: "Blackjack. Naturally."

OLYMPUS GODDESS DANI

Fully commit to the role and go big. Excellent physicality, vocal control, and the confidence to command the room in full mythological styling without winking at the joke. This should feel huge but never sloppy.

SCENE

You enthusiastically say the following as OLYMPUS GODDESS DANI: "BRING ON THE SLOTS."

CASINO GRANDMA DANI

Experienced, opinionated, completely certain. Casino Grandma should feel like Dani but a couple decades later. Same confidence, same preferences, even less patience for debate. This performance should be specific, restrained and characterful.

SCENE

You watch the other characters argue. You take a sip of your drink and remind everyone as CASINO GRANDMA DANI: "We've been through this. It's Roulette!"
