

PROJECT VEGGIE CHIPS

Description: Spirited with a big imagination! Super cute and equally witty. Natural born charmer. While clearly a little kid, there are adult-like qualities that shine through in their delivery and performance.

Most importantly, have fun!

SLATE: First name, last name. City.

THE SCENE:

You sit down for lunch on a set of school steps. You excitedly open your lunch box and try to find your favourite snack as quickly as possible!

You pull out your favourite bag of chips. Your eyes light up.

KID: YES! Mom packed the good stuff!

You look around pondering...

KID: Everyone is going to want to trade for these...

A hand comes in from the side holding a juice box. You look at the juice box.

Another hand darts in from the other side, holding an action figure, your eyes widen as you look at the action figure.

KID: Nuh huuuuhh

You take a crunchy bite.

KID: All crunch, no tradesies!
