

PROJECT X

The Stocky Teen

Description: Sweet faced but rock obsessed. Under 5'10". Feels like he wandered out of another decade (think Augusta Gloop from "Willy Wonka".) He should have expressive eyebrows, be disarmingly charming, and then suddenly very loud. Gets distracted by snacks. Interrupts emotional moments. He might ask for food mid-sentence.

Strong physical comedy is essential. Deadpan timing.

Must be comfortable and not have any allergies with prosthetics. This role will be required to wear face prosthetics for the shoot.

Wardrobe: Jeans and a t- shirt.

Slate: First name, last name. City.

Remember this video will be aired in a stadium that seats 50,000+ people. Your reactions cannot be small.
