THE SCENE

You're setting up the dinner table. In the other room, Grandpa teaches your grandson how to play chess. The grandson complains about how hard it is.

Grandpa: This is hard?! When we first came to Canada, things were a lot harder than this!

You roll your eyes. You think: not this story again.

Grandpa: No bank account. No credit card. It took going to so many places before we got everything set up.

You decide to interject.

Grandma: Actually, we just went to the bank and got everything we needed in one place!

You give Grandpa a warm smile.
